Vector 7 Ministries Inc

Vector 7 Ministries is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit disabled veteran entity that Mark Farmer Lt Col (Ret) USAF/R, created to focus on the Veterans, service members (and all those who put others ahead of themselves – police, LE, EMTs/Rescuers, Firemen, other IC Community partners) and their families. As a disabled Veteran himself, Mark spent 24 years in the USAF and the USAF Reserves fighting all over the world and he knows the pain that war and separation from family can cause. With help from Dustin Farmer CPT USA/VANG and Deb Hunter this is a joint service organization ready and willing to serve our fellow Airman, Sailors, Marines, Soldiers, Guardians, Service Members (and all those who put others ahead of themselves – Police, LE, EMTs/Rescuers, Firemen, other IC/Community partners) and their families.

Vector 7 supports families through fishing outings, marriage retreats, men’s and women’s ministry, flying, and anything we can do to stay connected and support each other.

Why Vector 7 you ask? When Mark was at the DIA serving as an Intelligence Analyst he came across a list of Vectors (Speed/Motion, Electric, Biological, etc.) that he was working on. In its simplest form one of 6 definitions of a “Vector” is a course or compass direction of an aircraft, ship, tank or satellite, but the 7th Vector was missing; that of the “Spiritual” Vector or the “Holy Spirit” of the Trinity that is always there, showing us the way to our Heavenly Father. It’s that spirit within us that makes us brothers and sisters in Christ in all we do whether at home or on the battlefield. It’s that spirit that reaches down and grabs that brother or sisters hand to help them up when they’re down to let them know they matter not only to us but to Jesus and our heavenly Father.
